

MOCK YOUTH ASSEMBLY

An annual youth advocacy project geared towards drawing the attention of policy-makers and gatekeepers to youth issues.

Its target audience include members of parliament, district chief executives, opinion leaders and youth.

OBJECTIVE

- Instill a culture of social participation among the youth of the country.
- Serves as a forum for the youth to voice out issues of concern to them.
- Gives policy makers an opportunity to interact with the youth and join in finding solutions to challenges facing the youth in the country.
- The project is also aimed at preparing the youth for future leadership of the nation.

Issues touched on during these Mock assemblies include youth unemployment, adolescent sexual and reproduction health and HIV/AIDS, democratic tenets and good governance issues. It equips young people with the necessary information to enable them live more fulfilling lives.

Felicia Dede Addy
Baptist Relief and Development Agency
Ghana