

Aware Generation (AG): Up for the African charter of the youth.

The project consists in awakening at the young people the positive values, the excellence by the appropriation of the African charter of the youth. It is a question of promoting and popularizing the African Charter of the youth in schools and university

Objectives

1-Create a committee of coordination and a Caravan for the popularization of the African charter of the youth; 2-Create 9 Clubs in the action for the Popularization of the AG in 9 provinces of the Gabon; 3-To Launch the competition " Young Ambassador " in favour of the African Charter of the youth; 4-To Launch the competition of the excellence called: " Young Gabon elite " to reward the best young leaders ; 5-Train the young people on the Leadership, the computer graphics, the management of project and NTIC; 6-To Form the young people on the culture of the peace and the voluntary service; 7-To organize the festival youth on subject " Dance and sing the African cultural variety "; 8-Attract attention of the government, the parliament and the political people on the role of the young people in the society 9-To help the Networks of the young people to write the speech within the framework of the competition of the best speech pronounced by the young people in the National Assembly of the Gabon; 10-Lancer the caravan " Move your Vote " for a massive participation of the young people during the elections; 11-Create a radio program and broadcast called " Aware Generation "; 12-to Create a directory of poem and of slam on the African Charter of the youth.

Additional information

Our project joins in the same frame of the campaign of mobilization of the Gabonese youth called: " Gabao on 2015 " thrown in 2004 further to our participation to the Pan-African summits of the young leaders of United Nations held in Dakar in Senegal and Ifran in Morocco. This one aims at promoting the Millenium Development Goals (MDG) within secondary schools, schools and universities of the Gabon.

AG will allow us to inform, to encourage and to promote the African positive values according to the African Charter of the Youth. Our caravan was thrown on November 1st, 2008 (international Day of the African youth) in the presence of the Minister of the youth and the youth associations of the Gabon

Laurina MOYI BOUNGUEBE

Réseau des Jeunes Volontaires
Francophones du Gabon.

Young people

The African Charter of the Youth was adopted in 2006 in Banjul. The Gabon ratified this charter, which represents the vision and the aspiration of the African youth for a better world. Regrettably, the majority of youth, the political men and the other do not know the contents even the existence of this charter. That is why, our project is going to improve the situation of the youth because, we are going to inform, to inspire and involve the youth in the promotion of the African positive values. We hope that at the end of our caravan the young people will be built and can pass at the stage of the awareness in the action. So, due to the competitions which we are going to organize, it has to awaken the competition with the young people to reach the standard of excellence. Finally, the training courses in leadership, management of project and NTIC will facilitate the intensification of capacities and the sharing of experience, to know how to make and know how to be between young people

